SEA SUNDAY 2010

The recent controversy about BP chief executive Tony Hayward sailing in the Solent at a time when his company has a crisis in the Gulf of Mexico, reminds us what a dangerous place the sea can be. With an oil slick the size of Scotland, the Deepwater Horizon well is already America's worst environmental disaster and BP to date has failed to fully control the spill. The contrast between the two locations is dramatic. One presents us with the worst effects of commercial exploitation on the sea whilst the other highlights the natural beauty of the sea that attracts many to it for holidays and sailing.

It is perhaps like dumping millions of tons of rubbish on Washington whilst at the same time sitting in your own perfect English garden. No wonder people in America are exceedingly upset. And yet the commercial exploitation of the sea involves us all as consumers who demand our fuel and energy needs to be met. With oil and gas having to be extracted from deep wells under the sea there are greater safety risks as technology pushes at the boundaries as to what is possible. At the same time the size of ships has increased and therein the possibility of dramatic future disasters.

The sea has always been a difficult environment to tame. We have had to develop skills to sail on it and large engineering projects to mitigate the effects of coastal erosion or the rise in sea level. But there will always be an element of unpredictability about it. The sea can be a focus for the best of human endeavour as well as revealing the worst aspects of commercial exploitation.

This year has been designated by the United Nations International Maritime Organisation as the 'Year of the Seafarer'. It is good to think about those who are part of a hidden industry that is rarely heard about or seen unless there is a disaster. On Sea Sunday we have that opportunity as a matter of faith. Over 90% of our trade is by ship. As an island nation we should be more conscious of the sea. I remember looking at a coastal parish and asking someone if they had seen or read a magazine called 'Coastal'. "Why on earth would I want to do that" came the reply. They had no idea of any relationship between their way of life and living by the sea. And no it was not Tony Hayward! At the same time, although we might not live in a coastal area we ought to learn more about life at sea. If it all remains hidden from us we can expect there to be greater environmental damage and abuses of human labour. The sea is a vital important part of God's creation. We ignore these things at our peril.

From the Treasurer

Just a few facts and figures from the Treasurer's 'book'.

From January 2010 to the end of April 2010 givings and collections totalled £5188 – for the same period in 2009 the total was £5539, so we can all see that we are down this year.

Our Parish Share for 2010 is £30,602.47. Unfortunately this will mean a shortfall in paying this amount this year.

Thank you all for the weekly givings, it all helps to keep our lovely Church, St Andrew's, here for future generations.

Saturday Morning Open Church

Opening the Church on the 2nd Saturday of each month is going well. Every time we have been visited by someone new to the Church, either visitors to the area, people who have lived here a long time but have never been inside or by people who just like visiting churches.

We have made new friends and we have a number of new regular attenders including two families who have joined us for the Family Services. We are particularly happy because one of these young ladies was confirmed at Bengeworth last month.

It is always a happy, friendly morning with members of our congregation and local community popping in and out but it would be good to have a few more people on our rota to cover for holidays etc. If you could volunteer even for one 2nd Saturday per year, please speak to John or Shirley Lynch or to Phillippa Henly.

St. Andrew's School Fete

Just a reminder that St. Andrews School Summer Fete is on Friday 2 July from 6pm - 8pm. We are having two stalls there; Nearly New Clothes and Accessories, and Cards. We hope to see as many people supporting us as possible, and we are hoping that the children and their parents will support us at our Fete on July 17th.

St. Andrew's Church Summer Fête 17 July 2010

This summer function will be held in the Vicarage Garden opening at 2.00pm.

Thanks to everyone who has volunteered for looking after stalls, promised and given items for them and offered help with setting up and organising on the day. We have arranged a meeting for all Volunteers for Tuesday 6 July at 7.00pm in the Church, (no problem with the Parish Room steps), so that everyone will know what they are doing on the day. We hope that as many people as possible will be able to come.

It has been decided that the Mother's Union will be doing a Bric-a-Brac Stall but please contact Ida Roberts with any donations, or leave them in the box in Church. After last year, we have promised Mark and Charlie that the Vicarage is a Bric-a-Brac free zone! We would like good, saleable items only, please.

Back to Church Sunday 26 September 2010

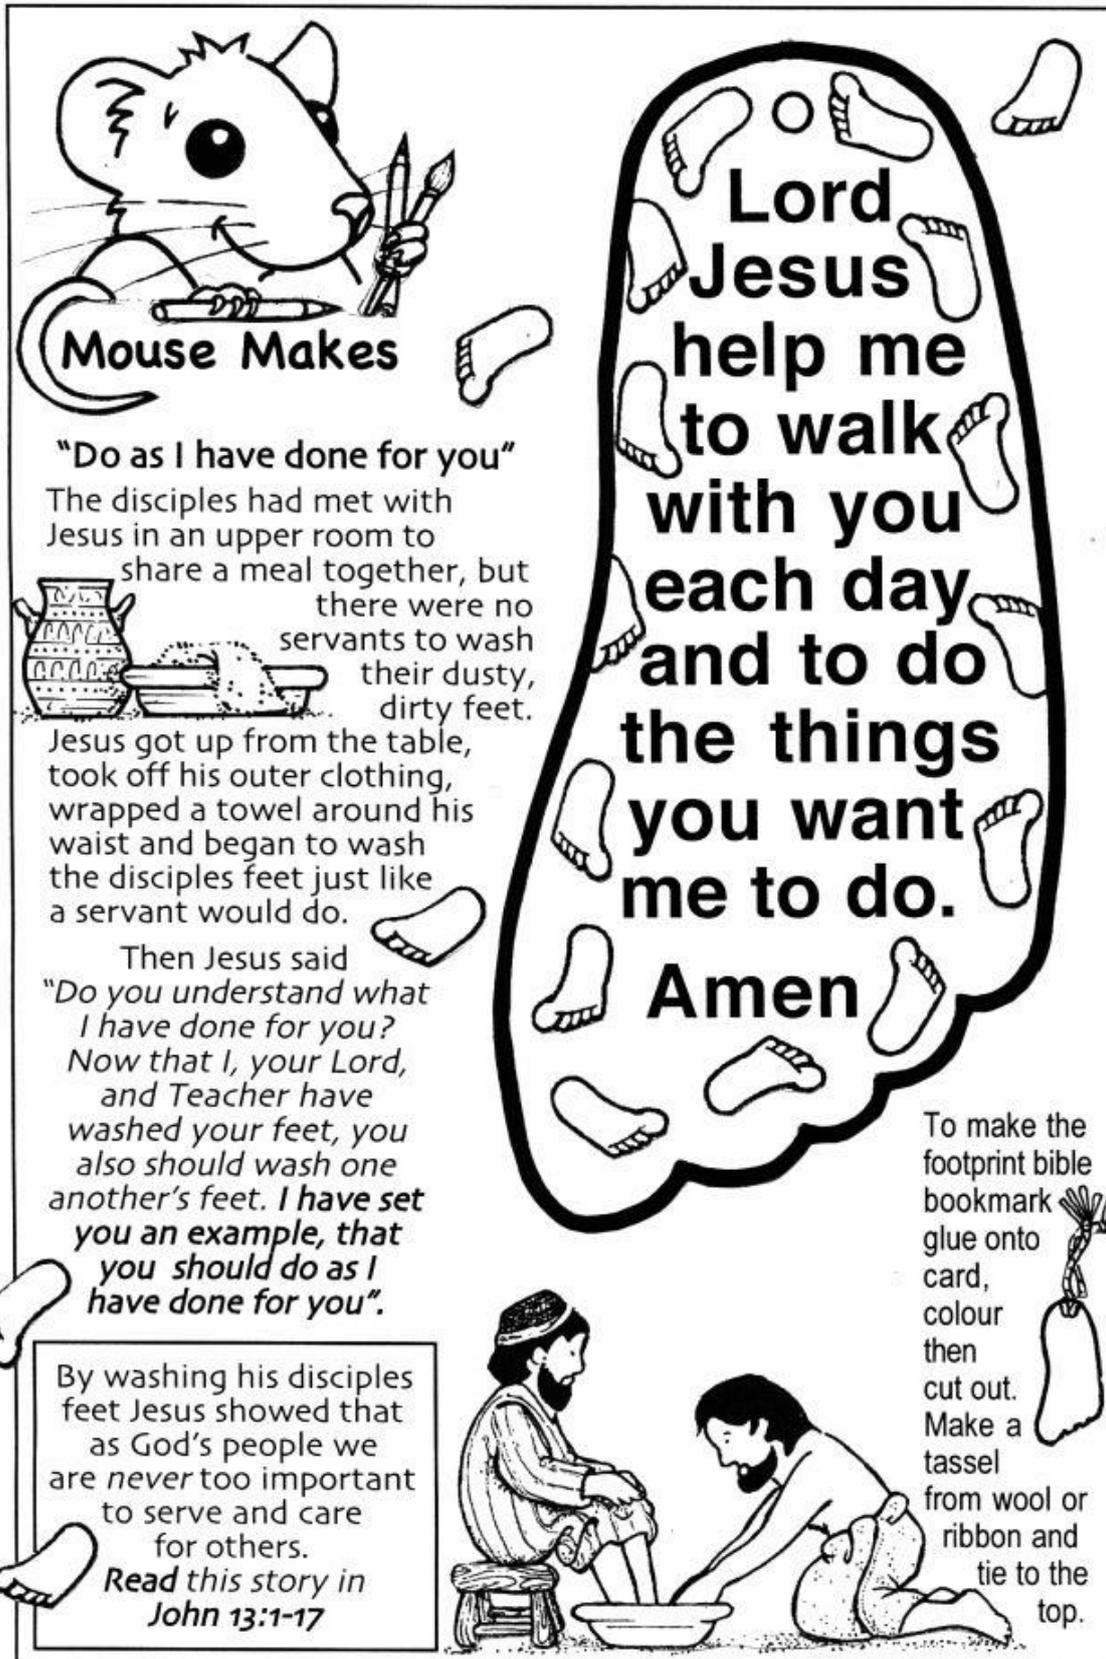

Hampton Church is taking an active part in Back to Church Sunday, which is now the largest single local-church invitational initiative in the world. It is based on the simplest and shortest step in evangelism - that we should invite someone we already know to something we love; invite our friend to our church. The initial focus was to invite 'back' those who used to attend, but we want to ensure that anyone who doesn't currently attend can be guaranteed a specially warm welcome.

Please start thinking now about who you will be inviting to come with you to St Andrew's on 26 September. Our target is to double the congregation size in one day!

Back to Church Sunday has grown beyond all expectations since the first one in Greater Manchester in 2004.

For Our Younger Readers

Mouse Makes

Lord Jesus help me to walk with you each day and to do the things you want me to do. Amen

“Do as I have done for you”
The disciples had met with Jesus in an upper room to share a meal together, but there were no servants to wash their dusty, dirty feet.

Jesus got up from the table, took off his outer clothing, wrapped a towel around his waist and began to wash the disciples feet just like a servant would do.

Then Jesus said “Do you understand what I have done for you? Now that I, your Lord, and Teacher have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet. I have set you an example, that you should do as I have done for you”.

By washing his disciples feet Jesus showed that as God’s people we are never too important to serve and care for others.

THOMAS CRANMER

In June we read about the Book of Common Prayer, the first prayer book in English. The person who wrote most of it, Thomas Cranmer, was born on 2nd July 1489. He became Archbishop of Canterbury in the reign of Henry VIII, however Thomas lived in dangerous times for anyone who took an interest in religious matters.

When he was a young man people were executed for smuggling Bibles in English into this country.

Thomas worked to replace the old style of worship with a closer interpretation of scripture. God's word was available to most people for the first time: people were at last allowed to read the Bible in their own language. More people were able to read and write although it still wasn't something that most people could do. But Thomas Cranmer was part of that beginning that we take for granted every time we say our prayers now.

Benefice Youth Club

The Youth group continues to meet regularly and grow in numbers following the recent confirmation. Having used the Simpsons resources successfully we are now going to use a brand new course based on various film clips. We hope that this pilot course will be used throughout the Diocese.

The Youth Group have recently taken part in a little drama on Pentecost during the benefice service at Sedgeberrow on 30 May. We also hope to continue using drama as a means of understanding Christian values and the Bible. I am in the process of arranging a visit from a Christian theatre group for later this year or early next year.

Many thanks for all the support given from you all.

Hampton Guides

On Friday 18 June, Hampton Guides joined other groups in the area, including Ashchurch for an evening walk up Bredon Hill. There were about two hundred Guides and Leaders present. There was a campfire celebration, in traditional Guiding style, with singing and sausages. After dark fell, leaders were given flaming torches and the Guides made their way down. It was wonderful to see the chain of lights, weaving their way down the hill.

St Swithin's Day -15 July

St Swithin's day if thou dost rain

For forty days it will remain

St Swithun's day if thou be fair

For forty days 'twill rain na mair

Traditional rhyme

Saint Swithin was a Saxon bishop. He was born in the kingdom of Wessex and educated in its capital, Winchester. He was famous for charitable gifts and building churches. His feast day is 15 July and his emblems are rain drops and apples.

Winchester Cathedral

Swithin was chaplain to Egbert, the 802-839 king of Wessex. Egbert's son Ethelwulf, whom Swithin educated, made him bishop of Winchester in 852.

Only one miracle is attributed to Swithin while he was alive. An old lady's eggs had been smashed by workmen building a church. Swithin picked the broken eggs up and, it is said, they miraculously became whole again.

Swithin died on 2 July 862. According to tradition, he had asked to be buried humbly. His grave was just outside the west door of the Old Minster, so that people would walk across it and rain fall on it in accordance with Swithin's wishes.

On 15 July 971, though, Swithin's remains were dug up and moved to a shrine in the cathedral by Bishop Ethelwold. Miraculous cures were associated with the event, and Swithin's feast day is the date of the removal of his remains, not his death day.

However, the removal was also accompanied by ferocious and violent rain storms that lasted 40 days and 40 nights and are said to indicate the saint's displeasure at being moved. This is probably the origin of the legend that if it rains on Saint Swithin's feast day, the rain will continue for 40 more days.

We had a fantastic time at Synergy Festival 2010. Over one hundred people from different denominations came together to make the event possible. It was filled with laughter, new friendships were made and the weather was glorious.

Plans are afoot for further networking.

A Big Thank you to all who helped and prayed and gave financial support, we could not have done it without you.

News from Hinton

The thrush has successfully hatched and reared four fledglings, which means we can now doze in comfort in the garden, when the sun shines that is.

During a recent trip to Cornwall, to visit National Trust properties and walk coastal paths, we were fortunate to visit the cathedral in Truro just at the start of a choral evensong, the first in Ascensiontide, and we brought back this ancient prayer.

*Give me a good digestion, Lord
And also something to digest.
Give me a healthy body, Lord
With sense to keep it at its best.
Give me a healthy mind, O Lord
To keep the good and pure in sight
Which seeing wrong is not appalled
But finds a way to set it right.*

*Give me a mind that is not bored
That does not whimper whine or sigh.
Don't let me worry overmuch
About that fussy thing called I
Give me a sense of humour, Lord Give me
the sense to see a joke
To get some happiness from life
And pass it on to other folk.*

Great and Little Hampton Educational Charity: Annual Report - June 2010

The Trustees' decision to switch the fund from a Deposit to an Investment account in December 2009 and suspend distribution of grants for one year appears to be working out very well. You may remember we were becoming concerned that grants to future generations of Hampton students would be worth very little if we did not safeguard, as best we could, the value of the income from our original deposit balance of just over £43,000.

We are very pleased to announce that the investment fund is valued on June 10 2010 at £51,123.91. Furthermore our income from dividends last year was £2244 which is more than we were, on average, getting in interest from the deposit account.

The good news is that from this September, therefore, we are able to resume our usual distribution of educational and training grants to the young people of Hampton.

Applications are invited for grants, available at the discretion of the Trustees for students under the age of 25 on 1 September 2010 who reside in the area of the Parish of Great & Little Hampton.

Application forms available by post (stamped SAE must be provided) from:
The Clerk to the Trustees, Great and Little Hampton Educational Charity
50 Sycamore Avenue, Evesham WR11 1YE

Closing date 29 October 2010, Late applications will not be considered under any circumstances

Cotswold Line Promotion Group Rail Excursion from Evesham to Minehead

The meeting on 8 June began with prayers.

Members were reminded of several forthcoming events:

Monday 28 June - Fair-trade Evening at Upton Snodsbury Village Hall, 7.30pm

Saturday 3 July - Deanery Coffee Morning at Pershore Parish Centre, 10am to Noon

Wednesday 7 July - Diocesan Festival at Woolaston 7.30pm

Tuesday 13 July - Strawberry Tea at 2pm. Members need to be at the Vicarage at 12.15pm

Sat 17 July 2pm Hampton Church Fete. Items needed are bottles and bric-a-brac, cakes are needed for Jenny's stall. There is a list in church for items.

John and Shirley gave a talk about their visit to the Holy Land. They began their talk, by describing how they visited the place where Christ was born in Bethlehem. The tomb of Rachael had difficult access. From there they went to Nazareth and Bethany. Jerusalem is quite hilly! There are many sights to see in Jerusalem, including the Garden of Gethsemane, and the gate, through which it is reputed, Jesus will pass for his return – the second coming. They also visited the Western wall, which has the most enormous stones. It rained on the day that John and Shirley went down the Via Dolorosa; the route which Jesus took with the cross. They went to the church of the Holy Sepulchre which is reputed to mark the spot where Christ was crucified. They also visited The Garden Tomb, where General Charles Gordon discovered what he believed to be the true tomb of Jesus. There was a groove for a stone to be rolled, and it is a genuine 1st century grave.

Ida thanked John and Shirley for their interesting talk, and the meeting ended with refreshments.

HAMPTON WI

Our President, Joyce Davey, welcomed members and visitors to the meeting on 10 June, and after dealing briefly with business items, introduced our speaker for the evening, Joyce Payne, who spoke to us about her life as a court dressmaker. In the time of Louis XIV, Joyce explained, all dressmakers were men and if women were caught making dresses, their tools and even half-finished garments could be confiscated. However the king's mistress petitioned the King, saying that, for reasons of modesty, ladies would prefer to have their dresses made by members of their own sex and, thanks to her powers of persuasion, the King agreed and women were allowed to become dressmakers. Joyce brought pictures of the elaborate designs which were fashionable in the French court at that time. Men, too, were very interested in fashion and well shaped legs were considered so important that they would put padding in their stockings to enhance their calves. In the days before pattern books and catalogues, dolls made of wood or wire were dressed to demonstrate the current fashions.

More recently, shortages at the start of the war led the government to ask top couturiers in London to devise styles of clothing which would use the minimum of fabric; for example, no turn-ups, waistcoats or pleats were allowed and boys would wear short trousers until they were about 14 years old.

To become a court dressmaker it was necessary to have been trained by one of the top 10 couturiers and Joyce's family moved to London to enable her to train with Mattli, where she spent 3 years as an apprentice before becoming a hand. Every girl had her own cottons, there were different colours for each stage; the original lines, corrections, fitting and final corrections. This meant that anyone could pick up a garment and know precisely which stage had been reached. When Joyce felt ready for a change she applied to Norman Hartnell and was offered a position in the sleeve room, but she preferred to continue working on complete garments and so decided not to move at that time. Later she did change employers and gained experience with lace work and tambour beading. After marrying and having children Joyce went into teaching, but when she was widowed she started her own business and has made dresses for many well-known people, including Moira Shearer, Vivienne Leigh, Katie Boyle, Gipsy Rose Lee and a Coronation dress for Lady Sefton. Joyce also worked for Simplicity, ensuring that the paper patterns actually worked. She now does soft furnishings and is volunteering for conservation work with the National Trust. Ann Evans gave the vote of thanks to Joyce for a most interesting and informative talk.

Our next meeting will be at 7.30 on 8 July at the Hampton Scout and Guide Community Hall, when Sheila Tremellen will talk on Kennels to Buckingham Palace via TV. New members and visitors will be made most welcome.

Hampton Friendship Club Diary for May

6 May – After our monthly games of Social Bingo, the Vicar came along to take a short service

13 May – Rob Hemming was booked to talk to the Club today about 'The Regal Cinema and Pastures New, but unfortunately had been taken ill. So once again John Lynch produced one of his quizzes, and members exercised their little grey cells.

20 May – Today for our outing, members were coached to Pershore for a short visit, after which everyone was delighted to again travel to Eckington for a WI tea. Again, the Eckington ladies produced their delicious sandwiches, savouries and cakes, beautifully presented along with a very friendly welcome. Lovely!

27 May – Today's talk, intriguingly called 'From Farm Records to Criminal Records and Beyond' was given by Rosemary Prosser, who greatly entertained her audience as she spoke of her days as one of the first policewomen to work with policemen, and of her years of being married to a farmer.

Sedgeberrow C of E First School

"A school which makes you long for childhood"

On Friday 11 June the school took part in their sponsored walk around Sedgeberrow making circuits of the village and finishing up in Glebe meadow for a whole school picnic. The weather was kind and the walk was very much enjoyed by all. The fund raising is in aid of a newly refurbished seating area for the children to eat their lunch outside in Summer and has been requested by school council who will also be planning some fund-raising of their own.

Friday 18 June was a 'Wheels Day' which is always very popular. Children are allowed to bring something with wheels to school to play on or with, in the playground e.g. a pram, scooter, or remote-controlled car. Each class has a slot during the day when they can go outside and play with their wheels.

Our sports morning will hopefully take place on Friday 2nd July weather permitting. We begin at 11.00am with the children parading out in their houses onto the playground where they take part in a series of co-operative house challenges. This year a trophy will be awarded to the winning house – Isbourne, Glebe or Queen. We then move to the rear of the field where every child will take place in two competitive class races – a flat running race and a novelty race. F.O.S.S. will be organising some refreshments and there will be a family picnic lunch on the field after the events.

Year 5 are looking forward to moving on to Bredon Middle School in September and are taking part in lots of cluster activities this term to meet with their peers from the other feeder schools. These include bell-boating, main games and a walk up Bredon Hill. F.O.S.S. will be providing a Rounders and Barbeque event for Year 5 towards the end of term, and the children will be putting on an exhibition of their school life and work for parents and other visitors in the school hall on Monday 19 July from 5.30pm to 6.30pm. Do come along if you can.

Remember SEDGEBERROW SCHOOL AND VILLAGE COMMUNITY FETE will take place on Saturday 3 July at 2.00pm in the school grounds and on other sites. We hope you will be able to join us.

St. Andrew's C.E. First School

As always this is a very busy term for us with lots of events. Reception and Year 1 enjoyed a morning of African drumming ending with a wonderful performance for their parents. Our Year 5s organised and ran a very successful 'Green Day' where the whole school took part in art and gardening activities with recycling in mind. We ended last half term with a brilliant Talent Show organised by our parents' association. The children danced, sang and displayed their football skills; there was even a puppet show and our very own boy band of 5 year olds. Not to be outdone the staff performed a dance routine which is sure to be remembered for a long time!

We were visited by Ofsted inspectors for 2 days last week. Although this can be a stressful time, our inspectors had a 'human face' and were very fair. This, together with the hard work of all the staff and fantastic support from parents, helped us survive the experience. We are only allowed to say that we are pleased with the outcome; we will give you more details when the report is officially published.

The next couple of weeks continue at the same pace with some of our Year 5 children visiting Prince Henry's High School for an afternoon of Whizz Bang Science, Reception visiting the Severn Valley Railway, pottery workshops for all the classes and the school fete on 2nd July – we hope to see you there!
