Bishop John's Lent Message 2018

This year's Lent Message was filmed at a place that, I dare say, will be familiar to many of you: the Worcester Royal Hospital.

Our National Health Service been on my mind recently having badly broken my wrist ice-skating with my 13 year-old on New Year's Day – yes, I know, I should know better! I ended up spending five hours in A&E at the Worcester Royal before being admitted to have a plate fitted under general anaesthetic. It's on the mend though I still bear the marks.

It wasn't the best preparation for my wedding but I came away with a deep sense of gratitude for the NHS. We hear lots about the strain it is under but we don't often stop to remember how fortunate we are to be able to benefit from it – more so than all our forebears and the vast majority of people in the world today. Having broken my wrist on a Bank Holiday I was treated and fixed within 24 hours by wonderful people whose skill and cheerful dedication to the welfare of their patients was inspiring.

Though it's not much recognised as such nowadays, the NHS is a profoundly Christian institution. It was intended by its founders, who included the then Archbishop of Canterbury, William Temple, to be a sort of institutional answer to the question 'Who is my neighbour?' The answer is, of course, that everyone is my neighbour. When you hear an ambulance siren, it's a sign of paramedics going to help someone in need on behalf of us all.

This Lent, I'd like to encourage you to count your blessings – especially ones like the NHS that you might generally take for granted. More than that, as you contemplate prayer, fasting and almsgiving I'd like to encourage you to pray for and maybe help financially those who are not able to count on such blessings. March 1st marks the tenth anniversary of my enthronement as Bishop of Worcester. As a mark of my own thanksgiving I'm setting up a 10th Anniversary Lent Appeal for Berega Hospital in Morogoro where they are struggling terribly. I was shocked to receive a report from the Director Isaac Mgego recently which informed me that the Tanzanian Government has reneged on its responsibility to pay the wages of nurses and doctors. If you feel able, I invite you to contribute toward that appeal, in thanksgiving, as part of your almsgiving, and to give thanks for the very many blessings that God showers upon you.

There are two ways to contribute to this appeal:

Donations can be made online at: <https://mydonate.bt.com/events/berega-hospital/456151>.

Cheques made payable to Worcester Diocesan Board of Finance Ltd and clearly marked 'Bishop's Lent Appeal' should be sent to: Doug Chaplin, Mission Development Officer at the Diocesan Office.

Bishop John

Prayer for April

Thank you Lord for the glory of the dawn at Easter. We praise you for the hope of Resurrection - the certain hope that Jesus's resurrection gives that we can be forgiven and the certain hope of a future spent in glory with you!

Thank you also that we celebrate at the same time as our Jewish neighbours, at the time of the Passover, the beginning of God overcoming a tyrant to give his people freedom; freedom from struggle and oppression, and eventually to live in a land of milk and honey. We thank you that milk soothes and honey is sweet.

This reminds us to pray for all people who struggle under violence and oppression, and we pray especially for peace in the Middle East and for a homeland for the Palestinian people; for peace in Syria and Yemen. We pray for refugees displaced by tyranny. Lord may we use our steel to build tractors and ploughs instead of guns of war. May there be peace for the sake of the children!

In Jesus's name we pray, Amen.

The First World War - Diary of a Momentous Year

1918 was the final year of the Great War. This year, Canon David Winter will look back on highlights of those critical 12 months, when the very shape of modern world history was being hammered out on the battlefields.

THE GREAT WAR
1914 - 1918

April 1918: 'Stand firm and fight it out'

April 1918 was possibly the last really low point in the War for the Allies. Casualties remained high - indeed, so high that it was felt necessary to extend conscription (compulsory military service) to all men up to the age of 50. There were setbacks on the Western Front, too. Another German operation, bizarrely named 'Georgette', was initially successful, pushing the front line back across the river Lys and capturing the towns of Armentieres and Merville.

Mind you, those names are evidence of how static this War had become, because they had been part of the battle zone almost throughout the war. By the end of the month, and at great cost, some of this territory was recaptured. Field Marshall Haig issued a rather desperate call in a 'Backs to the Wall' speech, calling on the troops to 'stand firm and fight it out'. There was at a high level a certain element of panic. Could the whole thing be lost after all those years of sacrifice?

Outwardly, Germany seemed surprisingly buoyant. They invaded Finland and had military gains in Russia, taking the city of Kharkov. Their Operation Michael in France had also had some success. No wonder the Secretary of State for War, Lord Derby, resigned, to be replaced by Lord Milner. British generals and politicians were apparently unaware that the morale of the German people was falling, as international trade collapsed and the cost of the war began to bite. In fact the 'Michael' campaign ended in defeat at the battle of Ancre. The pattern of the War hadn't really changed: gains and losses were simply part of the stalemate, and both sides were approaching exhaustion.

There was, however, one historic first for Britain in this month, the birth of the Royal Air Force. I had an uncle who was in the Royal Flying Corps, which, with the Royal Naval Air Service, was now amalgamated in one fighting force. As if to mark the birth of the RAF, the most outstanding German pilot of the war, Manfred von Richthausen - known as the 'Red Baron' - was shot down and killed over the Somme. In the aerial dog-fights which were now a feature of the war, he had shot down no less than eighty British planes.

On 18th April 1918, the first of the 50-year-old men were recruited. How long would they serve, people wondered? In fact, by the time they finished their training, the war would be over.

The road to Emmaus

One of the best short stories in the world

The story of the two disciples walking the road between Jerusalem and Emmaus on the first Easter day is 'one of the immortal short stories of the world' (W. Barclay). Their encounter with the risen Christ is also a model for how we can meet him in our lives. (You can find the story in Luke 24: 13 -35)

Hearts Opened. The disciples displayed 'downcast' faces (17), as their hearts were preoccupied with grief. They felt let down by God, as well as bewildered by all they had heard. No doubt their emotions prevented them from recognising Jesus walking with them, even though their hearts burned within them. Despite our feelings, Jesus is still with us in situations of loss or desolation, as well as when we feel let down by God or other people.

Minds Opened. Although this pair knew the Scriptures, they didn't understand what they said about the Christ. Therefore, Jesus opened their minds to make sense of the events they were experiencing. The Holy Spirit also brings God's word alive for us, as He challenges our preconceptions about Jesus.

Eyes Opened. The couple only recognised Jesus when He broke the bread as they ate together. The turning point came when they invited Jesus into their home, and allowed Him to take charge. If we are to recognise Jesus' presence with us, we need to open our lives to Him. What part does Holy Communion play in this? Open eyes, minds and hearts will lead to open mouths. Having discovered Jesus, the disciples can't keep the news to themselves. The Christian message is never truly ours until we have opened our mouths and shared it with others!

St Andrew's Fellowship

Our meeting was held on Tuesday 13th March at Hampton Club and Ann Evans presided in the absence of John Lynch. This being only our second meeting at the club we did have a slight hitch regarding the siting of the screen for the slides, and not finding light switches, but this only added to the good atmosphere which we always have.

Our Speaker was Nicholas Clark who with his slides took us trekking in Thailand and visiting Bangkok. It was quite an experience for him and we enjoyed the trip too.

Our next meeting at Hampton Club is on Tuesday 10 April at 2pm and the Speaker will be Mrs Joan Bomford who won a Countryfile Farmer of the Year award.

Everyone is very welcome.

St Andrew's Fellowship is a Church based group, but is open to anyone of any or no faith, and of any gender or age and we meet on the 2nd Tuesday of the month at 2pm. If you are interested please contact John Lynch on 01386 553392.

Hampton WI – March 2018

In the absence of the President, Joyce Davey welcomed members to the meeting on 8 March.

Everyone agreed that the New Year lunch at Broadway Golf Club, had been excellent, as always. Several members had also enjoyed the bi-monthly lunch at Casa in Evesham. The next one would be in April at Fosseyway Garden Centre.

There were notifications of several future County and Group events, including the Spring Council Meeting at No. 8, Pershore on 30 April, a Fashion Show at Pebworth WI on 18 April, an Open Evening with participation in Morris Dancing at Honey Bees WI on 16 April, and the Group Meeting at Wickhamford on 26 April.

As it is our WI's Golden Anniversary year, it has been proposed that we go out for lunch later in the year, and members were asked for suggestions regarding the venue.

Business concluded, Joyce introduced Sue Johnson, our speaker for the evening, who writes novels, short stories for magazines and poetry. The title of Sue's talk was 'A Writer's Notebook', and she described how she had started writing, and how she became published. Sue said she had always wanted to be a writer, and was encouraged by one of her primary school teachers. Despite difficulties, she was determined to pursue her dream of writing and eventually had a short story published in Woman magazine, the same story that her university lecturer had said was no good, telling her to rip it up and start again!

Sue gathers a lot of her material by listening to people wherever she goes, picking up on scraps of conversation, which spark ideas. Her top tip is to carry a notebook wherever you go, for jotting things down.

To date, she has been published in many magazines, both here and abroad, and has both her novels and poetry in print. Her aim is to have at least 40 pieces in circulation at any one time. In addition to writing, she runs workshops and classes, to help other aspiring writers.

The competition for 'Something Colourful' was won by Joyce Davey, with a beautifully embroidered bag from India.

Next month our speaker will be Rosemary Prosser, whose talk is entitled 'From Tights to Trousers'.

If you would like to join us at one of our meetings, do come along. We are always pleased to see visitors and you will be made very welcome. We meet in Hampton Guide and Scout Community Hall on the second Thursday of the month at 7.30pm. For further information, please contact our Secretary, Joyce Davey on 01386 443755.

Successful learners Success for life

Once again, this half term is flying by and the school has been a hive of activity. All the children have been working extremely hard, which was relayed to parents and carers at our recent Parents' Evenings.

Our Reception classes 'Stay and Play' sessions are still extremely popular, with many parents and carers coming into school to work alongside their children. Weekly activities include cooking, writing, building, role-play and much more. Here is what one parent said about the sessions "I thoroughly enjoy coming to Stay and Play because it makes me feel that I am involved in my daughter's learning."

Our Year 5 pupils have recently been on their annual residential trip to Condover Hall in Shropshire, where they participated in a plethora of outdoor and indoor sporting activities. Everyone had a fantastic time!

Both children and adults celebrated World Book Day one week late due to the snow day we had! However, everyone made a fabulous effort and looked absolutely amazing dressed up as their favourite book character.

Our newly-formed Parents Teachers and Friends Association (PTFA) recently held two school discos which were a huge success! Children, volunteers and staff packed the hall and danced to chart-topping hits and disco classics. Everyone had a fantastic time and a whopping £353.72 was raised. Their recent cake sale also raised £221.27. On Friday 23 March at 6pm, they are holding a 'Chocolate Bingo' event. Everyone is welcome to come along and support the event. All profits made from this, and every PTFA event goes towards purchasing equipment, subsidising trips and providing social events for the children.

To celebrate the end of the term, we will be attending Church for our annual Easter Service, during which the Easter Story will be performed by the children and the Open the Book team.

Finally, we would like to wish everyone a Happy Easter

SEDGEBERROW CE FIRST SCHOOL

"Reach for the Stars"

World Book Day on 1 March was celebrated in school with the children dressing up as a character from a book. We had some brilliantly creative designs and it was very difficult to choose a winner from each class. The enthusiasm and excitement on the day was wonderful despite the snowy weather trying to put a halt to proceedings.

The following week, we continued the literary theme, welcoming two visitors into school. Julie Fulton, author of the 'Ever So' series of rhyming picture books came in to speak to our younger children and Tamsin Rosewell, a bookseller and review writer did workshops with Years 3,4 and 5.

Sport and mental wellbeing continue to play an important role in school life. We currently have coaches for cricket and rugby, and a yoga instructor taking P.E. lessons and after-school clubs. The floorball team continues their success in the Cotswold League. There are also therapeutic art workshops and play therapy taking place.

Our pond area is undergoing a revamp and we have a new cover, made by Neil Roebuck, to keep the children safe as well as improve the aesthetics. There will be a sensory garden area and we hope to encourage wildlife, especially birds, for the children to watch both in person and from camera footage.

The new play equipment has arrived and the pirate ship and log crossing are proving to be very popular at break and lunchtimes.

We are refreshing the school values this half term and have chosen the following to represent the values that we, as a Christian school, embrace and teach: Love, Hope, Commitment, Acceptance, Forgiveness and Honesty. As a celebration, we have invited Heather Kelleher (a talented local art teacher and mum to Patrick in Y4) to work with all of the children to create a new display board.

As we get closer to Easter, we are looking forward to the Year 1 children performing an Easter play "The Tale of 3 Trees" and we will also be joining Rev. Binney at St Mary the Virgin Church for a special Easter Service.
