Letter from the Archdeacon of Worcester

On the news the other day they reported a study which showed that most people check their mobile phone every twelve minutes, with many looking at messages within five minutes of waking up. I remember seeing a cartoon of a family sitting at their meal, all reading their phones or tablets, and the caption read: 'At breakfast the family was best left to their own devices.' Given how much we now depend on them to talk to people, I do wonder why we never used to see long queues outside telephone boxes. (You might have to explain to your children what a telephone box is!).

Undoubtedly, the internet has opened up new possibilities of communication, but like any new invention we need to develop a way of using it ethically and well.

It is ever so easy to press the button to see who wants to get in touch, and it is rather nice to know. It's important to develop good practice so that we learn how to get the best out of the technology without it taking us over.

Some words from Pope Francis' encyclical; 'Rejoice and be glad' grabbed my attention: 'The presence of constantly new gadgets, the excitement of travel and an endless array of consumer goods at times leave no room for God's voice to be heard. We are overwhelmed by words, by superficial pleasures and by an increasing din, filled not by joy, but rather by the discontent of those whose lives have lost meaning. How can we fail to realise the need to stop this rat race and to recover the personal space needed to carry on a heartfelt dialogue with God?'

Recovering personal space seems a pretty good idea to me, allowing space for God and for our flourishing. That's a lesson I often still need to learn myself!

There is a strand in the Bible which suggests that wisdom waits. Yet technology creates an expectation of immediacy. Do you remember the email which you sent spontaneously, and afterwards wished you hadn't? Personal space leads to reflective space, and I can't help thinking we need more reflecting and less reacting.

When I've finished writing this, I will email it as an attachment and magazine editors will receive it on a website. That's the wonderful thing about technology. Then I'll go and make myself a cup of coffee and instead of picking up my phone I might just go out into the garden for a few minutes, bathed as it is in beautiful sunshine. Or there again, has someone just messaged me? Shall I take a quick look?

Prayer for September

Dear Father,

September again! How quickly the months roll by. How quickly our lives move forward. Help us this September to welcome the new starts in our every-day lives – the new school year, the new clubs and activities for all ages that start up again this month. There are so many opportunities, so much to keep us busy. Help us Lord, this September to commit each new day and each new activity to you, aware that every day is a gift from you. Help us to choose wisely how we spend the time you give us and to reflect your love and generosity and kindness to those we meet each day.

In Jesus name, Amen.

Mainly Music

Imagine a time and place, provided by volunteer teams, where young children and their parents will find delight in their shared experiences, be accepted for who they are, and grow educationally. Imagine this contributing to the very important foundation of attachment that contributes to the secure wellbeing of a child. That's Mainly Music.

We're establishing a Mainly Music here at St Peter's Church, Bengeworth, on 6 September 2018 at 10.00am, after we've applied and been signed off. This is a fun music session that's followed by eat/play/chat. It'll be a time when your child engages with educational concepts and you'll be involved. It'll also be a place where you'll meet other parents in the community and feel encouraged as a parent.

If you'd like to come, give Sarah Hewitt a call so you can register – 07456 549969.

Heritage Open Weekends – 6 – 9 and 13 – 16 September

Over two weekends at the beginning of September, many of our churches will be taking part in the national Heritage Open Days event. Every year in September, historic places across the country throw open their doors to celebrate their heritage, community and history. It's a chance to see hidden places and try out new experiences, all for free.

This year there are two weekends being held: 6-9 & 13-16 September.

Church Building Project Manager, Kate Andrew said: "It's fantastic that so many of our churches are engaging with the Heritage Open Days. It really is a great opportunity to reach those who might not normally go into a church. We've got loads of history and stories to share with people and it's also a good way for parishes to begin thinking about how they might interpret their buildings for a wider audience, learning things along the way about the church that they probably had no idea of before."

For those churches who are regularly open, the weekends provide a chance to give people an insight into areas where they might not normally be allowed. St Mary's, Kidderminster and St Stephen's in Redditch will both give visitors the opportunity to go up their towers and at Top Church in Dudley people will be able to book to visit the Medieval crypt.

"At the very least, I hope that most churches will be open with some refreshments provided," continued Kate. "It's a chance to show those from the local community and beyond what's been happening in our churches and for PCCs to consult visitors on future plans."

Sedgeberrow Vestry Project

The vestry project is on hold at the moment. We received the faculty permission from the diocese in early March. However we have had problems with Wychavon over planning permission. One of their objections has been settled. They needed to know whether bats would be disturbed. As there are none they will not be disturbed.

The major problem is that we need to dig trenches for water and sewage. Wychavon were concerned that graves may be disturbed. Wychavon are proposing a Ground Penetrating Radar Survey, which is very expensive. If any graves are found we would have to have the site excavated by an archaeologist, any bones carefully removed and reburied. They estimate the cost at between £2000 and £10000 per body. As this has been a graveyard for over 1000 years I think that bodies will be discovered. I don't think we could afford the enormous cost of this. We have therefore withdrawn the application for planning permission. The architect is looking into this problem. We hope he will find a solution in the not too distant future.

On a more positive note, because some people have difficulty hearing in the church, especially when there is a large congregation, a sound system has been installed. It has been used twice so far and has proved to be beneficial to everyone, especially to those who need help in hearing.

Sedgeberrow News

Our coffee morning in June made £153 and the July coffee morning made £183, both for Church funds.

Our next coffee mornings will be on 27 September and 25 October, both at 10am in the Church.

The Church Fete was a huge success and made £760, also for Church funds. It was lovely to have the choir from Sedgeberrow First School sing to us. Thank you to Mrs Katie Holdstock for organising this for us. Our thanks go to all who make these events possible and also visitors who come and support us.

The Harvest Supper is on Saturday 6 October, Please contact Ann Banks on 01386 881623, for details.

The First World War - Diary of a Momentous Year

1918 was the final year of the Great War. This year, Canon David Winter will look back on highlights of those critical 12 months, when the very shape of modern world history was being hammered out on the battlefields.

September 1918: Singing – and Surviving – in the Trenches

Modern people, distraught if deprived of ‘all mod con’, must be baffled how men survived year after year of living much of the time in the trenches of the Western Front. For month after month everything was ankle deep in mud. These were their living quarters, complete with primitive toilet arrangements, permanent damp, rats and trench foot – and that’s before one mentions the enemy’s constant shelling.

There were, of course, moments of respite at rest centres behind the lines – and there was always the coveted hope of a ‘blighty’, a wound that was not too serious but would mean treatment back in the UK. ‘Blighty’ was an Urdu word passed on by soldiers who had served in India – it means ‘European’, or in this case ‘home’.

Some men, it’s true, succumbed to what was called ‘shell shock – traumatic stress syndrome. But the amazing fact is that most not only survived the trench conditions and the ever-present danger, but even looked back on it as a significant experience to be proud of. How on earth did they do it?

My answer, largely based on things I heard from my father and his war-time colleagues, centred on two experiences: songs, and camaraderie. When they marched and sang ‘Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag’ and called on each other to ‘smile, boys, smile’, they were celebrating being part of a strange and exhilarating brotherhood. Humour was rife in the trenches, much of it about the sheer awfulness of their situation. The ‘Wiper’s Times’, a newspaper produced by soldiers in Ypres, can still make us laugh, as its recent revival on stage has proved.

It was the camaraderie – the sense of belonging to an exclusive ‘club’ – which made the humour possible and authenticated the songs. It was a profound feeling of belonging which made the impossible bearable. There was, one must add, a third element in trench survival: the chaplains and the Salvation Army. I never heard a single veteran discount their value, right there in the heart of things, offering a prayer, yes, but also tea and cakes and understanding. Of course, the soldiers hated the war, the loss of comrades, the relentless months of deadly danger. But their songs and memories also told another story, which we should not forget.

Austen Court Care Home would like to get more involved with their local community. Therefore, we are offering local groups free use of one of our meeting rooms to hold their group meetings, where we will provide complimentary refreshments.

We feel this will be a great way to introduce ourselves to the wider community and to build relationships with local groups.

Here at Austen Court we pride ourselves in providing the highest possible quality of person-centred care to each of our residents. We also feel that we extend this to support relatives in what can be a difficult and emotional time.

Austen Court not only offers flexible and responsive care that meets all the needs of our residents, we also promote their social wellbeing and independence.

We cater for Residential, Nursing, Dementia, Palliative and Respite Care.

We believe that bringing the community into our home will be beneficial to our residents' social wellbeing and independence.

Should you like to discuss this any further and think that your group could benefit from our offer or alternatively you believe that you have something to offer our home, please call Clare Davies on 01386 425160

St Andrew's Fellowship – July and August 2018

It is the 'Afternoon Tea' Season, and in July we held our Social and Strawberry Tea. To start with, Shirley and John had organised a photo quiz, which turned out to be a lot of fun. We asked everyone to bring a photo of themselves as babies or young children, and we had to guess who's who. Not many people got even a few right. John had brought along a photo of himself as a baby, and being the only man represented, everyone thought it would be easy, but no-one got him right. Betty and Toby only had photos in an album, which they brought along, and it was lovely and really interesting to browse through 80 or 90 years of their history. Tea followed, with strawberries from the Farm Shop, always a good buy. Accompanied by shortbread biscuits and a variety of cakes. It was really a very enjoyable afternoon.

We don't usually have a meeting in August, but we thought it would be nice to meet up at The Evesham Hotel for a cream tea, and after many fluctuations in numbers due to doctors' appointments, twelve of us had a very pleasant afternoon, eating gorgeous scones with endless pots of tea.

Our next meeting will be held in Hampton Club on Tuesday 11 September, at 2pm, when members of the Rooftop Team will be coming to speak to us.

On 9 October Wiltshire Farm Foods will be giving a demonstration and tasting session

On 13 November there will be a talk entitled 'Evesham Now and Then' by Gerald Heath

A pre-Christmas Outing to a Garden Centre will be on 22 November, and on 11 December we will have our Christmas Party, with entertainment by the Lygonian Singers.

We are pleased to welcome everyone, regardless of gender. Subscriptions are £15 per year, visitors £2, which includes refreshments.

Do come and see what we are all about!

Everyone is very welcome so come and give us a go - Visitors £2 including refreshments

We are pleased to welcome new members of any gender and though Hampton Church based, of any faith or none. If you are interested in joining us, please contact John Lynch on 01386 553392.

Hampton WI – July 2018

Our President, Jan Scutt, welcomed 24 members and 4 visitors to the meeting on 12 July.

Thank-you letters had been received from two charities, Dementia UK and The British Legion, for donations in memory of two of our members, Gwen Thomas and Girlie Humphries.

The bi-monthly lunch group had enjoyed afternoon tea at the Evesham Hotel in June, and were looking forward to the next lunch at The Bell in Cropthorne, in August.

The Group Outing to see the Suffragette Silhouettes at the Coalbrookdale Museum of Iron, had been an enjoyable day out.

Members were reminded about the fish and chip supper in lieu of the Harvest Supper in September, and also to make their menu choices for the anniversary lunch at Childswickham, also in September.

It was then time for our speaker, Ginny Meakin, to tell us about how she and her husband fulfilled their ambition of having a smallholding, and being able to build their own home. Initially, they thought about trying an equestrian business, but after attending an agricultural show, a friend suggested alpacas. This also met the criteria of not keeping any animals which would have to be killed for meat. They looked for land, and eventually found what they were looking for in Sedgeberrow, and after ten year's hard work, have achieved their dream.

Ginny gave some background on alpacas, which are related to camels, and are kept for their fleece, which can vary from the classic type from the Huacaya, with a good crimp, to the more silky, lustrous fleece of the Suri, which is rarer. She showed us some examples of fleeces, which come in a variety of natural shades, ranging from black to browns and fawns, through to white. Ginny demonstrated how it is prepared for spinning, although now she sells the fibres for hand spinners, as she doesn't have the time to make craft items herself. The fleece is hypo-allergenic, making it good for pillows, and also has excellent thermal properties.

Ann Evans thanked Ginny on behalf of members.

The monthly competition was for something 'Glamorous', was won by Jan Scutt. Next month's meeting will be held on Thursday 13 September, when our speaker will be Paddy Hannigan, on the subject of the Suffragette Movement.

You would be welcome at any of our meetings, which are held in the Hampton Guide and Scout Community Hall at 7.30 pm on the second Thursday of each month. For further details please ring 01386 443755

Who named Watt?

The Bel and its smaller brother, the Decibel, were named after Graham Alexander Bell, of telephone fame.

The Ampere, often shortened to amp, is named after Andre-Marie Ampere (1775-1836). French mathematician and physicist, considered the father of electrodynamics.

The Volt is named after the Italian physicist Alessandro Volta (1745-1827).

The Ohm, the unit of electrical resistance, is named after the German physicist Georg Simon Ohm (1789-1845).

The Celsius scale, also known as the centigrade scale, of temperature, is named after the Swedish astronomer, Anders Celsius (1701-1744), who developed a similar scale to:

The Fahrenheit scale, proposed by Amsterdam-based Polish physicist Daniel Gabriel Fahrenheit, born in Gdansk, Poland (1686-1736), after whom the scale is named.

Hampton Flower Show

15 September 2018

This year Hampton Flower Show will take place on Saturday 15th September on Hampton Village Green and will be opened by the Evesham Town Mayor. We are planning another fun filled family event with many activities and stalls for all. This year we are also including a dog show, so be sure to bring your canine companions along!

The committee have been putting on many fundraising events throughout the year which were very well supported by the local community, including a fashion show, a quiz and chocolate bingo! Support has already been provided by Evesham Town Council, Worcestershire County Council and Bloor Homes.

The schedule for this year's show can be found as a download on the exhibitors page.

Recipe for September

Despite the very dry summer, the Courgettes in my garden have kept on growing, and now I am trying to think of ways to use them up. Courgette Chutney is one option, and here is another:

COURGETTE CAKE WITH CREAM CHEESE TOPPING AND FILLING

Ingredients for the Cake:

- 2 courgettes
- 1 carrot (peeled)
- 200g butter
- 200g caster sugar
- 200g self-raising flour
- 50g ground almonds
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 3 eggs
- 40g sultanas
- Zest 1 lemon
- Zest 1 orange (use juice in frosting)

Ingredients for the Frosting:

- 400g cream cheese
- 200g butter
- 200g icing sugar
- 200g self-raising flour
- 1 lemon

To Decorate:

A handful of toasted flake almonds and lime zest

Method

- Preheat oven to 200°C/180°C/Gas 6. Line and grease 2 x 8" baking tins
  - Coarsely grate the carrot and courgette, then place in a colander over the sink, and squeeze to get rid of any liquid. Repeat until there's no moisture left. Toss in 10g of the flour and leave to one side
  - Sieve the flour into a bowl, add sugar, baking powder and almonds, along with lemon and orange zest, sultanas, butter and eggs.
  - Mix for 2 minutes, then add the grated carrot and courgette. Mix for a further 2 minutes until combined (do not overmix)
  - Divide between the lined cake tins, and bake for 30-40 minutes, or until a skewer inserted into the centre comes out clean. Cool in tins for 10 minutes, then turn on to a wire rack to cool completely.
  - For the Frosting:
  - Place softened butter into a bowl, add 1 tbsp of orange juice. Beat together, then add icing sugar and beat till smooth.
  - Stir in cream cheese and lemon zest, mix gently until combined.
  - Spread half the frosting in the middle of the cake and spread the remainder on top. Decorate with the flaked almonds and shreds of lime zest.

Children's Page – Bible Bite

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Matthew chapter 20 verses 1-15

Jesus told a story to describe God's kingdom. A vineyard owner went to the marketplace at dawn to hire workers to pick his grapes.

This year the Autumnal Equinox is on Sunday, September 23

What is the Autumnal Equinox?

In the Northern Hemisphere, the moment in time when the Sun stands directly above the equator while crossing from the north to the south is called autumnal equinox (also known as fall equinox, September equinox or southward equinox).
