Letter from the Archdeacon of Dudley

In recent years I have often visited Top Church, Dudley, as plans have come together to make it a Resourcing

Church. Meetings have taken place in a back room, as the main worship area is huge and hard to heat. When I have been involved in Sunday services, the tiny congregation have been dwarfed by the cavernous building, which they have struggled so faithfully to maintain.

It was a delightful experience therefore to walk into the church one recent Sunday to be greeted with well over a hundred people of all ages, ethnic backgrounds and church traditions gathered to hear the recently appointed Resourcing Church Leader, the Revd James Treasure, outline the church's unfolding vision. There was a real buzz!

Home-made cakes and good coffee were served, activities were provided for children and young people, and using an informative PowerPoint presentation, James shared the Top Church story, past, present and future, and explained about the changes planned to enable the church to be fit for purpose for the next 200 years.

Further discussion then took place over plenty of delicious healthy, vegetarian food, served in compostable trays with wooden forks. These details underlined the message James and the team he is forming want to communicate.

I came away inspired and encouraged, hopeful about what will grow in and around Top Church in the coming years, but also challenged about attention to detail. Is the message of welcome, inclusion, care for the environment and whole-life discipleship we preach in our churches also fleshed out in our actions? As Kingdom People do we model lives of integrity? What is communicated to newcomers potentially exploring faith in our churches if we serve unfairly traded coffee in plastic cups and ask for a contribution?

We don't have to be a resourcing church to be welcoming and attractive and holistic in our approach. We could all perhaps identify one small detail in our building or welcome, which if given a few moments' thought and attention, could change the experience next week for those who cross the threshold. What might it be in your place of worship?

Prayer for November

This is the month we remember soldiers and war. Here is a prayer written by an anonymous Confederate soldier in the American Civil War. What he says applies to all of us fighting our own private battles in life.

I asked God for strength, that I might achieve,
I was made weak, that I might learn humbly to obey.

I asked for health, that I might do greater things,
I was given infirmity, that I might do better things.

I asked for riches, that I might be happy,
I was given poverty, that I might be wise.

I asked for power, that I might have the praise of men,
I was given weakness, that I might feel the need of God.

I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life,
I was given life, that I might enjoy all things.

I got nothing that I asked for –
But everything that I had hoped for,
Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayers were answered.
I am among all men most richly blessed.

Amen.

50 years ago, on 28th Nov 1968, Enid Blyton, British children's writer, died. One of the most successful children's writers of the 20th century, she wrote more than 762 books. Best known for Noddy and the Famous Five series.

We need to talk about funerals...

'Taking Funerals Seriously' was the title of a conference recently held in Worcester. For everyone who went, it made us think about death, dying and funerals - not a subject that many of us feel comfortable talking about. It can be hard to find the answers to questions that we don't want to ask; awkwardness, fear and upset can make it difficult to be able to be fully informed when we find ourselves in the position of attending or organising a funeral. The conference prompted us to write this article as a conversation-starter about this difficult topic.

Anyone living in this country is entitled to have a Church of England funeral, regardless of whether they ever attended church or not. Whilst a 'church funeral' suggests a certain location, there is a lot of flexibility about where such a service takes place; it doesn't have to be in church. It could also take place in a crematorium, at an outdoor woodland or burial site, or in a cemetery.

The clergy and other licensed ministers are experienced and well trained in pastoral ministry. When someone dies we understand how difficult this can be; we are there to support you, and your family and friends, before, during and after the funeral with compassion, fellowship and prayer, understanding your sadness and loss. We work alongside you to put together the service - each service is unique and tailored to reflect the life of your loved one. It may, for instance, include a particularly appropriate tribute, favourite poems, music, hymns and songs. Working closely with the funeral directors, we make sure everything is fitting for what is both the celebration of a life and a final farewell.

Central to all Church funeral services is a message of hope. We want to affirm that, while death is an end, it is God's promise that death is not the end. In death, we are invited into a new sort of life in Christ. We believe that this new life that is offered to everyone; every life is precious to God and, as the Bible says, there is nothing - not our actions in life, nor even death - that can separate us from God's love.

Whilst it is a difficult topic to bring up, it may be helpful to you and your family to talk about what you would like for your own funeral, whatever stage of life you are at. There is a helpful website, www.churchofenglandfunerals.org that might be a useful starting point. Any one in your local ministry team would also be more than happy to discuss things with you.

The First World War - Diary of a Momentous Year

1918 was the final year of the Great War. This year, Canon David Winter will look back on highlights of those critical 12 months, when the very shape of modern world history was being hammered out on the battlefields.

1914 - 1918

November 1918: When the Boys Came Home

By Autumn 1918 it was obvious that the war was coming to an end, Germany was clearly beaten, but no one had actually won. The front line was more or less as it had been for years, but after Amiens the Germans knew that this was a conflict they could never win. High level discussions took place, while in Britain the public mood was surprisingly optimistic. 'There's a silver lining', the songs said. 'Keep the home fires burning till the boys come home'. When an 'Armistice' was announced, there was euphoria. No more killing, the guns silenced. Peace at last!

'Armistice' was a new word for most people – not a peace treaty or settlement (that would follow a conference in Paris the following January), but simply a laying down of arms, but for many that was enough for now. 'No more killing', they declared. Most of the boys did come home, but tens of thousands didn't. We have tended to judge the first World War by the numbers involved – and they are appalling, but each casualty was also someone's personal loss, as I learnt in my first parish.

It was a rural village near Oxford. Each month I took Communion to an elderly woman known to everyone as Kim. She was in her nineties and had been a teenager during the Great War. Her two brothers were serving on the Western Front. A few days before the Armistice the post office motor-cyclist delivered the telegram they had been dreading, one of the boys had been killed in action. A week or so later, after the fighting had stopped, the same messenger returned, with the same message about her other brother. As she told me of it, 70 years after the event, her eyes filled with tears. That was the true price of war, and when I share the silence on Remembrance Day it is her and those two young men I think of, not the million others from many nations who fell in that terrible conflict.

My father enlisted to join in 'the war to end all wars'. It didn't, of course. Twenty-one years later it all started again. War doesn't end wars. True peace does.

Wilfred Owen – 1st World War Poet and Hero

British poet and soldier Wilfred Owen was killed 100 years ago this month, on 4th Nov 1918. He died leading his troops across a canal in Northern France exactly a week before the war ended. He was 25.

Owen, who was noted for his shockingly realistic poetry about the horrors of trench warfare, was born in 1893 in Shropshire. On leaving school he became a teaching assistant, and in 1913 went to France for two years to work as a language tutor.

But in 1915 he returned to England to join the army. After harrowing experiences in the trenches he suffered from shell shock and went for treatment at Craiglockhart War Hospital, near Edinburgh, where he met fellow poet Siegfried Sassoon.

Owen went back to France despite Sassoon's pleas, and was awarded the Military Cross for bravery after capturing a machine-gun post almost single-handed.

Brought up according to his mother's strong beliefs, Owen had thought of becoming a priest. For a while he was lay assistant to the vicar of the Oxfordshire parish of Dunsden.

His only volume of poems, edited by Sassoon and published in 1920, contains some of the most poignant English war poetry, including Dulce et Decorum Est and Anthem for Doomed Youth.

St Andrew's Fellowship – 9 October 2018

After opening the meeting with our prayer, acting Chair John Lynch, read a lovely card from past Chair Jenny Perkins, thanking members for their good wishes in her recent illness. Another card was circulated and signed by all present wishing her continuing improvement.

Shirley Lynch took contributions for the club's next outing to the Hop Pocket, and all 18 members present agreed that it would make sense to move the date of the AGM nearer to March, the end of the financial year. Members also agreed to have a post-Christmas lunch at the Bell Inn at Crothorne in January. Next year's programme is already in preparation.

We then moved to our speaker for the day, Susie from Wiltshire Farm Foods. She had arrived with her mobile kitchen (two Microwaves!) and set them up along with five dishes that we were all able to sample. They were delicious! – and there was very little of anything left to be disposed of! These were followed by some scrumptious puddings – there was nothing left of them! And they too, were delicious! Wiltshire Farm Foods is an old-established firm, providing a wonderful service for people who, for whatever reason, find it difficult to get out to the shops for fresh food, or who struggle with today's huge portion sizes. The meals come in three sizes which makes so much sense. They are delivered to your freezer free on a regular or occasional basis, and are very reasonably priced. And just in case you are wondering, dear reader, no, I am not on a commission!!!

We then finished with the obligatory cup of tea and the equally obligatory raffle! Our next meeting will be held in Hampton Club, on Tuesday, 13 November, when we shall be hearing what promises to be a fascinating talk from Mr Gerald Heath on "Evesham now and then". Anyone of either gender is welcome to attend our meetings, any faith or none, and the hall is now supremely disabled-friendly - and so are we! For information or more details, contact John or Shirley Lynch, 01386 553392.

Hampton WI – October 2018

In the absence of the President, Joyce Davey welcomed members and WI Adviser, Suzanne Owen, to the AGM meeting on 11 October.

Our September Fish and Chip Supper had been an enjoyable change from the usual Harvest Supper. The 50th Anniversary meal at the Childswickham Inn last month had been very enjoyable, with most of our members attending.

Members had enjoyed a very interesting talk by the former florist to Prince Charles. at an open evening held by Ashton Under Hill, and some would be going to Fladbury WI, when we would be transported to the idyllic Greek Islands!

There was an invitation to join Badsey WI for their Shopping Trip to Cardiff.

Several members were looking forward to the next bi-monthly Lunch, at Batsford Arboretum. Advance notice was given for the following one, in December, at The Bell in Cropthorne.

Suzanne Owen then conducted the AGM. She talked about the drive to start new WI's and asked what Hampton had done to attract new members. She gave several suggestions as to what we could do to increase our membership.

The recommendation by the Committee that the AGM should be held on the same day as the Resolutions Meeting in May, rather than October, was discussed briefly. Ann Evans proposed acceptance of this suggestion and there was unanimous agreement. The next AGM will therefore take place in May 2020.

Liz Rodway then gave the Treasurer's Report, which gave a good overview of the past year's income and expenditure, resulting in a fairly healthy balance.

Joyce then gave the President's Report, reminding us that during the year, we had sadly lost a long-standing member in Girlie Humphries, and happily acquired some new members. She gave a brief resume of the year's activities.

Suzanne Owen asked if any members wished to join the committee. As there were none, the present committee was re-elected. Joyce thanked Suzanne Owen.

It was then time for a welcome cup of tea. The competition, for something Historic, was won by Ivy Pullin, with some 1903 maps of Hampton,

If you would like to join us you would be made very welcome. We meet at 7.30 pm on the second Thursday of the month at Hampton Community Hall.

Next month's meeting will be held on Thursday 8 November, when Gerald Heath will speak to us about 'Evesham Then and Now.'

You would be welcome at any of our meetings, which are held in the Hampton Guide and Scout Community Hall at 7.30 pm on the second Thursday of each month. For further details please ring 01386 443755.

Reach out to touch the World this Christmastime

No wrapping paper required, ribbon or tags, just knowing that by offering hospitality to a "Stranger Soon to Become Friend", the experience will stay with you and your guest long after recycling the wrapping paper, storing decorations and finishing off the cold turkey! Here at HOST UK we offer you the opportunity to engage in an extra special Christmas-time by opening your home to an international student for whom the alternative would be, not only being far from home and loved ones but marking time in lonely halls of residence.

HOST UK arranges visits for International students all year round but as can well be imagined, festive season hospitality is greatly sought after and valued. Our "festive season" will include the period in the Christmas run up, as well as New Year. Your guest will be someone keen to experience British life with all its special traditions and culture...and keen to share those of their home country. Your hospitality will be a unique gift, invariably remembered and treasured. Your gift to each other and to the world will be that of growing friendship, peace and understanding.

Please consider this opportunity and remember that if the festive season is difficult for you, we do operate all year round and hosting can become one of your New Year Resolutions!

St Andrew's CE First School

Successful learners Success for life

This half-term has flown by and has been an action-packed learning extravaganza for every class, with our engaging, interesting and stimulating curriculum continuing to ensure that our children's learning is both meaningful, and benefits from a specific focus on the core requirements of English and Maths.

We recently participated in Happy & Healthy Week, which was a great success. Pupils in Years 1-5 took part in a variety of 'mix-up' sessions where they rotated around different classrooms for a range of RE, well-being, spirituality and health themed activities. Using the 'free' Change4LifeFood Scanner app on the iPad, they found out about how much sugar was in some food (children were very shocked at how much sugar was in most things!). Pupils also participated in 'the mile run' and took care of our school environment. A 'Chill Skills' expert came into school and our wonderful Mrs Oliver taught the children an Indian dance in PE.

We celebrated Harvest in school during the first week of October. It was wonderful to see several parishioners in attendance. An extra big 'thank you' to Cath and Jane, who come into school twice-weekly to help pupils deliver our Open the Book assemblies. We were humbled by the generosity of our families who donated food and produce, which was taken to the 'Caring Hands' food bank at the Christian Centre in Evesham, which serves vulnerable families in Evesham and surrounding areas.

Also in October, we held two very successful Open Days for both current and prospective parents and carers. Our 'Link & Learn' Workshops will commence very soon; they will be a wonderful opportunity for parents and carers to come into school, giving them the opportunity so see how, and what, their children have learnt and are learning.

November is an eventful month with Guy Fawkes Night and Remembrance Day providing the backdrop for learning about historical events. Our Year 5 pupils traditionally collect money for the Royal British Legion through the sale of poppies and poppy related items in school.

In December, the whole school are very much looking forward to our trip to the Swan Theatre in Worcester, to see the action-packed pantomime, Maid Marian and her Merry Men.

Children's Page – Bible Bite

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in
Mt 9:9-13, Mk 2:13-15, Lk 5:27-32

The Roman invaders had given the job of collecting their taxes to local Jews who also overcharged, so they were doubly hated.

Matthew had his tax office by Lake Galilee.

Jesus walked past, and said

Follow me

Matthew left everything and went with Jesus.

Matthew held a big feast and invited his friends so they could meet Jesus.

They were other tax collectors and bad people

The Pharisees saw Jesus eating with them.

They grumbled to Jesus' disciples.

Why is your teacher eating with all those bad people?

Jesus heard them and said

Who needs a doctor, healthy people or the sick?

Try reading 'keeping rules doesn't make up for not having kindness.' *

*Hosea 6:6

Hosea was talking about people who looked like they were following God's rules but were bad inside.

I have come for the people who need my help.
