From the Archdeacon of Dudley, Nikki Groarke

September often feels more like the start of a new year than January does! Many of us feel rested after a summer break, with fresh energy for the new term. It's often a really good time to check in with our priorities as a parish, making sure we are clear on our sense of direction, united in our aims.

The vision of the diocese as a whole is to grow as Kingdom People, sharing the good news of Jesus' love in Worcestershire and Dudley. As the body of Christ, we join to worship God, make disciples, share hope, and transform communities as we live out values of love, compassion, justice and freedom to bring about the kingdom of God on earth.

We are clear about these purposes, and our priorities for the coming years. We aim to:

- Double the number of children and young people worshipping in our churches.
- Create 100 new worshipping communities and range of ways for people to come and worship God.
- Invest in the renewal of around a dozen churches to ensure that each major area of population has at least one church with 150 people attending weekly, enabling them to support other local churches.
- Underpin these by investing in our clergy and lay leaders, providing training and development opportunities to enable them to grow and feel supported and equipped for mission.

Bishop John has been wholeheartedly behind this vision, and in setting us on a direction of travel, he leaves a legacy for his successor to build upon. In setting out the Statement of Needs for the next Bishop of Worcester, we have been clear that we seek a bishop who will be excited to join in the adventure with us, inhabiting the role in their own unique way of course, but ready to come alongside us as we grow as Kingdom People together, bringing our long-term plans to fruition.

So as the new term begins, it might be good to review these priorities in your parish. How are you planning to engage with more children, young people and their families, for example? Is there a New Worshipping Community you could begin to explore with Kim, our NWC Enabler's help, so that others can find a way to worship God? If you have been working with a Mission Accompanier, how is your Health and Sustainability Plan developing? How is your congregation sharing hope, making disciples and transforming your community? I look forward to hearing some of the encouraging stories emerging as your plans take effect over the coming months. May God bless you as you grow together.

In our Thoughts and Prayers

A Prayer for all the communities affected by the unrest and violence across towns and cities in the UK in recent weeks

We pray for all the communities affected;
For all those left injured, traumatised or afraid;
For the police and all at national and local level seeking to restore public order and bring perpetrators to justice;
For places of worship in the affected areas;
And all people of faith and goodwill seeking to promote peace and respect in the face of violence and hatred.

Teach us, O Lord, the way of your statutes; and lead us in the path of your commandments.

Keep our nation under your care; and guide us in justice and truth.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for those in pain

Lord God, whose Son, Jesus Christ, understood people's fear and pain before they spoke of them, we pray for those in hospital;

surround the frightened with your tenderness; give strength to those in pain;

hold the weak in your arms of love, and give hope and patience to those who are recovering;

we ask this through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen

From Dean Designate of Worcester, Stephen Edwards

I must find a way of explaining what I am doing over the summer without it sounding odd. When people ask, 'what next?' I say I am going to disappear and then come back – as the Dean!

There is some reasoning behind it, but it is beginning to sound a little too much like a reference to 'Stars in their eyes'. You may remember the dry ice doorway through which contestants passed before returning as their chosen celebrity. It is true that I am fortunate to be able to have some significant time on leave this summer as I finish in one role at the Cathedral and prepare for my installation as the next Dean of Worcester on Sunday 15 September (the service is at 3pm in the Cathedral and I do hope you will come). But I am not disappearing, and I am certainly not going to come back through that 'doorway' as anything other than myself. Be yourself is probably the most quoted, and most useful piece of advice given to people for interviews, meetings, and stepping into new roles. Being ourselves should be the most natural thing in the world – surely, we cannot be anyone else, and surely we all want to be more fully ourselves.

At the heart of the Christian life is that response to the God who calls us by name, at baptism and confirmation, and in every step we take. The way of Jesus is a way to authentic living, a way of living as God intended for those who he makes in his image. It is a call to be fully alive, fully ourselves.

I realise how fortunate I am to have extra time off this summer in readiness for changing role, but I pray that, whatever the weather and whatever the circumstances, you too might find time to be yourselves and know the love that God has for you as you are.

What's the Big Idea?

An Introduction to the Old Testament: Gospel of Matthew

This month we turn to the New Testament and look at Matthew, the first of the gospels. Although linked to Matthew the apostle, it is generally believed that the author used oral tradition, written fragments, eye-witness accounts, as well as common material in the other synoptic gospels (Mark and Luke).

Matthew, in writing for Jews, sets out to prove that Jesus is the true Messiah. He connects Jesus' birth, life death and resurrection with the Old Testament Scriptures. In fact, he quotes the Old Testament more than any other New Testament author. This is reflected in the opening genealogy which traces Jesus back to Abraham; in his use of the terms kingdom of heaven and Father in heaven, reflecting a Jewish reluctance to use God's name; and in the way he portrays Jesus as the Son of David.

The whole gospel is structured around five blocks of teaching (chapters 5-7; 10; 13; 18; 24-25). This fivefold division reflects the structure of the Pentateuch (the first five books of the Old Testament).

Matthew provides a comprehensive context by which we see all God's creation and salvation completed in Jesus, and all parts of our lives (work, family, friends and future) completed in Him. At the end of his gospel, Matthew records Jesus' commission to His disciples share this good news, promising to be with them:

'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age.' (28:18-20)

Reflecting Faith: Arts and Crafts Churches

The Revd Dr Jo White considers the history of our village churches

Originally, the theology behind church building was to build church buildings on higher land, so that people would have to lift their heads to look upon them; with the tower or spire giving it extra height.

This was reflecting the faith of lifting our eyes to God and recognising our place in His Creation – and yet He still came to earth for us.

Often a clock would have been placed on the tower or spire for the local people who would not have had personal timepieces, and again they would have lifted their eyes heavenward to see it. The clock might have chimed, or would have been connected with the church bells to enable illiterate people to know the time.

There were 612 Commissioner churches built in the early 1800's, when society was becoming industrialised, and folk were moving away from rural life and into towns.

By the middle of that century the Arts and Crafts Movement was well under way, and church buildings were being 'targeted'.

Between 1884 and 1918 there were about 5000 churches built in the UK, of which around 350 can be identified as Arts and Crafts churches. Much depended on the Patron of the church and their generosity.

In East and North Yorkshire there are a set of 17 churches which were restored or built by the local patron(s) – father and son of the Sykes Family of Sledmere House – between 1866 and 1913. They say they are unparalleled elsewhere in Britain.

This month:

Have a look at a church near you and see if you can see the influence in it of this Arts and Crafts Movement. It was intended to make buildings less austere, more decorative, more 'emotive'. Do you think it does?

Great & Little Hampton Education Charity Registered Charity No 702528 Trustees Report for the year 2023/2024

Trustees who served in the year:

- Tracy Dresch 15 Nov 2021 (Co-opted) for 5 years
- Emma Stokes 01 July 2023 (Worcester County Council)
- Peter Scurfield 15 November 2023 (Evesham Town Council)
- Craig Jennings 4 Nov 2020 (Co-opted) for 5 years
- Rev Mark Binney ex officio Chair (from 2021)
- Clerk Mrs Liz Shephard

Status

The Great & Little Hampton Education Charity exists to provide financial support, at the Trustees discretion, to residents of the Parish who are under the age of 25 and engaged in education or an apprenticeship. The Charity can be contacted via email on hamptoneducationcharity@gmail.com

There are five trustees who meet three times a year. At our meeting in November we consider the main batch of applications for grants from students and decide how best to disburse the bulk of our income. We meet again in January/February to consider any special business which may have arisen, and we hold our AGM in May/June.

Report

The Charity made 33 grants during the year 2023-24. Fourteen students at college received £50 each (£700 total), eight home-based university students received £100 each (£800 total) and eight university students living away from home received £125 each (£1,000 total). Additionally, one student received a specific student grant of £200 to help with their overseas studies.

The Clerk confirmed that posters were put up in local retail units, and also sent to local schools, colleges and universities. The clerk also did a low-level social media campaign on the Evesham Noticeboard Facebook page. This resulted in an increased number of applications this year.

The balance of the investment fund at the end of October 2023 was £105,683.70. There was no change to the investment strategy.

The Chair of trustees for the year was Craig Jennings.

Councillor Emma Stokes joined as the Worcestershire County Council Trustee and Councillor Peter Scurfield joined at the Evesham Town Council Trustee.

Mrs Liz Shephard continued as Clerk the trustees have appreciated the efficiency of her work. Looking ahead we can be confident that because of the priority of the trustees in the past to safeguard the fund for future students and apprentices of Hampton Parish, that we will be in a position to fulfil the aims of the charity for many years to come.

Yoga Classes at Hampton Guide and Scout Hall

In Yoga, the individual is treated as a number of inter-connected layers of being. The practices and ideas associated with Yoga operate on all levels to bring about a re-integration of these various layers leading to a sense of wholeness. Through working on the physical body, we can make real, positive changes not only to our physical health, but also start to gain a sense of mental and emotional wellbeing and a quieter mind. Working with breathing practices we are able to balance our physical, mental and spiritual energy levels.

Through the deep relaxation reached during meditative practices, we are able to attain a sense of inner stillness, the effects of which radiate outward promoting wellbeing for ourselves and those around us. As a holistic system Yoga brings us back to a natural state of balance and harmony.

If this sounds of interest to you then you may like to try one of the two Thursday morning classes currently being offered at Hampton Guide and Scout Hall. The first is a mixed ability Hatha Yoga class for men and women of all ages; bring your aches, pains and health conditions with you as long as you can get down to the floor and back up again.

If you cannot, if you have difficulty standing, or a long-term serious health problem, then you might consider the Accessible Yoga class.

In this class we will adapt considerably to meet the needs of those individuals attending; this may mean taking the whole class sitting, or could incorporate some standing/lying as and when appropriate.

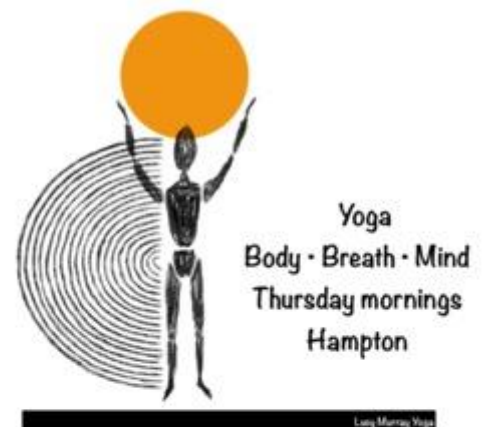

Hatha Yoga: Thursdays 09:30 - 11:00

RECIPE - Plum and Almond Traybake

INGREDIENTS

- 25g Flaked Almonds, toasted
- 200g Self Raising Flour
- 175g Soft Light brown Sugar
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 150g ground almonds
- 3 large eggs
- 50ml milk
- 100ml Greek yoghurt
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- 1/4 tsp almond extract
- 175g soft butter
- 100g marzipan, chopped into small pieces
- 8 ripe plums, stoned and halved
- FOR THE ORANGE ICING GLAZE
- 100g icing sugar
- 1 or 2 tbsp orange juice

METHOD

- Preheat the oven to 180C/160Fan/350F/Gas Mark 4. Grease and line a 20x30cm traybake tin with baking parchment.
- Toast the flaked almonds in a small frying pan over a medium heat, shaking the pan occasionally until the almonds are golden. Be careful not to burn them. Set aside to cool.
- Sift the flour, brown sugar, baking powder and ground almonds into a large mixing bowl.
- In a jug, combine the eggs, milk, yoghurt, vanilla extract and almond extract with a small whisk or fork. Add this mixture to the dry ingredients along with the butter. Mix well using an electric mixer until you have a smooth batter. Fold in the chopped marzipan.
- Pour the batter into the tin and place the halved plums on top. Sprinkle over the toasted flaked almonds.
- Bake for 40-45 minutes or until the cake is golden, risen and springy to the touch. Remove from the oven and leave the cake to cool in the tin completely.
- When the cake is cold, make the orange icing by mixing the icing sugar and orange juice together until you have a smooth icing that is thick enough to coat the back of a spoon.
- Drizzle over the traybake. Cut into slices and serve!

Written and performed by Michael Lunts

A musical drama focussing on Elgar's relationship with his beloved wife Alice. The friends who inspired the famous 'Enigma Variations' are also brought to life as, following the death of Alice, the composer muses on the origins of that first masterpiece, a work that put him on the musical map, and which may never have seen the light of day but for Alice's encouragement and inspiration. But who, ultimately, was Edward Elgar? Was he the real 'enigma?'
