Around the Diocese

New Deaneries

The consultation has been completed and the new deanery structure which will move us to six deaneries will come into effect on 1 February. New Area Deans will be appointed.

Bishop John said:

“I am delighted that so many people contributed to the consultation on the changes to our deaneries, resulting in a number of amendments to the Pastoral Order. This new structure is an important step in ensuring our diocese is fit for purpose going forward, allowing us more flexibility in deploying ministry and organising mission. Over the next few months, as teams are formed and chapters, deanery synods and other groups are able to meet, I pray that it will result in new partnerships and ideas for taking the love of Jesus out into our communities.”

The new Deaneries are:

Greater Dudley; Redditch and Bromsgrove;
Kidderminster and Stourport; Worcester
Malvern and Upton and Pershore and Evesham.

Communion wafers

If you are shielding and would like Communion wafers sent to you at home please contact the office. The wafers are bagged in a Covid secure way for you to partake in either a virtual service or your own private communion.
