Andrew Spurr and Mark Binney

We keep in mind...

- ◆ All those who have died in the past 12 months and those who mourn them. The families and friends who have been prevented from saying goodbye as they would have wished.
- ◆ All those whose businesses are being affected by lock-down or changes to trading with EU.
- ◆ All those who are subjected to harassment, abuse and violence on a regular basis, that they can get help and support.
- ◆ All those who are born with Downs Syndrome that they are able to live a full and fulfilling life bringing joy to their families and friends

FOR OUR PRAYERS

Mark Bartlett; Heather Attwood; Sylvia Emson; Tom Evans and Caroline Rusher.

For those who have died, and all who mourn them:

Dennis Nicholls, Simon Coombs, David Knuckley, Janet Burtenshaw, Kathleen Rea and David Wylid.

National Day of Reflection
Reflect Connect Hope
23rd March 2021

Since the first UK Covid-19 lockdown began on March 23rd 2020, millions have been bereaved. The National Day of Reflection, officially supported by the Church of England, will designate a special day (March 23rd) to reflect on collective loss and grief.

There will be a minutes silence at 12 noon and the Church of England have written An Act of Prayer which can be used at home and can be found at <https://churchsupporthub.org/download/an-act-of-prayer-for-individuals-or-households-to-mark-23-march-the-beginning-of-the-first-lockdown/>

For more information and ideas on how to reflect please visit the Marie Curie website at <https://www.mariecurie.org.uk/get-involved/day-of-reflection>
