 * It's Plantlife's #NoMowMay... because Every *
 * Flower Counts *
 * Leave your lawn (or part of it) unmown for the month *
 * of May and let the flowers bloom. Then, at the end of *
 * the month, find out how many bees your lawn can *
 * feed with our Every Flower Counts Survey. *
 * The exciting new results from the 2020 survey show *
 * our lawns are more important than ever for *
 * pollinators, and that more people than ever are *
 * mowing their lawns less often. *
 * So... join in the fun with #NoMowMay and the Every *
 * Flower Counts Survey from 22nd-31st May to get *
 * your own Personal Nectar Score. *
 * When it comes to providing vital nectar and pollen *
 * for bees, butterflies and other insects, every flower *
 * counts. And your lawn can help provide that feast. *

Events In the Benefice

Worship Packs

As the churches have now re-opened for services Worship packs will no longer be sent out. If you are continuing to shield and wish to receive a pack then please contact the office. The wafers are bagged in a Covid secure way for you to partake in either a virtual service or your own private communion.

Around the Diocese

Sermon Podcasts

Each week a sermon podcast is available to listen to and download.

Prayer Diary

The prayer diary for each months are available to download: daily prayers are published on the diocese social media channels and the www.cofe-worcester.org.uk

If you have any events or information that you think would be of interest to your fellow congregation members please send the details to the office by Thursday of each week for inclusion on the following Sunday.

Academics at the University of Worcester and Worcester Cathedral have joined forces for a new series of talks addressing religion in modern life.

The online sessions will take issues of general interest and relate them to themes in the study of religion.

Topics include the 'digital afterlife', the spiritual aspects of the experience of ageing, the environment, faith schools, and women bishops. The talks, due to start later this month and run over the summer, are open to the general public and are designed to be accessible to all, both people of faith and those with no faith.

The first 2 talks are:

27 May – Rev'd Dr James Woodward, Sarum College, "The Aging Agenda: Theological and Social Perspectives"
