Meet Rev Andy Smith

A reminder that Rev Andy Smith and family will be joining the St Peter's family for tea and cakes at Bengeworth Church House on Sunday 25th July between 2pm and 4pm. At the time of writing this is still subject to Covid regulations but it looks as if things will be relaxing on the 19th July to some extent, which means we can go ahead. Seating around tables will be provided and the hall will be well ventilated. The Church will be drawing up its own guidelines on how we proceed past 19th July. We will have to be guided by them regarding the wearing of masks etc. However, the good news is that masks don't have to be worn when eating cake and drinking tea!! For more information or to put your name on the list, please call 01386 48482. Offers of cakes also welcome. Julie Westlake

Care Home Ministry - Starting Up Again

We have been invited to share a regular 'Songs of Praise' service at Cavendish Park on Offenham Road. It will be held in the garden.

Tuesday 20th July 2020: 10am-4pm

One of English poetry's most well-known poems – Wordsworth's 'Daffodils' – uses flowers as a means to facilitate the poet's thought, and many other poets have done likewise. Poets are also skilled at paying attention to the essence of plants and flowers and finding vivid images to evoke them. We will use Holland House's glorious gardens to inspire and focus our own poems, Refreshments and two course lunch included.
