Thank You

Charlie Binney would like to say a huge thank you to everyone for all their good wishes, cards and flowers during her time in hospital. She is slowly recovering at home and looking forward to getting back to normal.

We keep in mind...

- ◆ All the parents whose children are sick or in hospital, that they get the care they need and fully recover.
- ◆ For the farmers who are bringing in the harvest, that they have enough labour to gather the crops
- ◆ For all those who are experiencing financial problems especially those in full-time work who are unable to make ends meet.
- ◆ All the extreme weather events happening around the world, that governments wake up to the impact of climate change.
