Sunday, 15 July

There will be no 8am Holy Communion at St Andrews this week.
There will be an 8am service at Bengeworth for those who wish to attend.

St Andrew's is fitted with a loop system.
To use this please switch hearing aids to 'T'

Gluten free Communion breads are available in all of our churches. If you require one, please mention this to the 'welcomers' or one of the Churchwardens.

We keep in mind...

All those fighting the fires on moorland, the firefighters and soldiers working in difficult conditions to bring the fires under control and for all the wildlife that is threatened by the fires;

For the young people trapped in the caves in Thailand and the experts from around the world who found them. That they will be brought safely out and reunited with their families.

All couples who are getting married in the Benefice, that they may grow together in love and understanding;

All young people coming to the end of their school year, for those who are leaving their school and starting their secondary education; and especially for those who are leaving school and moving into higher education or into the world of work.
