We keep in mind...

All those who serve in the Armed Forces around the World. Risking their lives for the good of others.

All those taking part in Remembrance Services and for families of the fallen in past and present conflicts.

All those who have been bereaved in the last year, that they find comfort and solace through their grieving.

All those people who are homeless as the season turns and we move into winter. For all the organisations who are trying to support them into accommodation.
