We keep in mind...

All those people especially in hospitals, emergency services, the police, hospitality and charities who will be working to support and help other people over Christmas.

All those who seeking to end wars and conflict and to bring peace and security to all those affected.

All those who have lost loved ones during the last year who are finding Advent and the Christmas season difficult.

For all those without the warmth and security of their own home or who are worried by potential homelessness, that they find a safe place to live.

Christingle & Carol Service - Hampton

Thank you everyone who attended the service or filled a candle with loose change.

We raised the sum of £207. 89 which has been sent to the Children's Society.

Please ask the wardens if you would like a candle for next year.

A Peaceful & Happy Christmas to you all from

Mark, Patrick, Leonard, Nick, John, Elaine & Caryl

Please note the Christmas Day Morning Worship will now be at 9.30am

Prayer Diaries for December to February are available in each church, please collect one.
