FOR OUR PRAYERS

We keep in mind...

All those involved with fighting the catastrophic fire at the Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris. The people who watched in horror and sadness; and those who are now challenged to rebuild.

The people of Sudan as the army take over control of the country and declare a three month state of emergency.

The families and friends of the 29 people killed in the Bus Crash in Maderia.

Families in our communities and town who are struggling financially and those who are trying to provide them with help and support.

All Christians around the world celebrating the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ today.

For those who are housebound, sick and elderly:

Those who have died and those who mourn them

LET THERE BE LIGHT

Let There Be Light is a family friendly film, that follows the conversion of a staunch atheist, with some inspirational scenes, this film really calls us to be the light that Jesus called us to be in this dark world and to respond as Jesus would, with love.

Let There Be Light will be released in UK cinemas this Easter on Good Friday, April 19th, the link gives details of the cinemas showing the film.
