We keep in mind...

- All the children in this country who are unhappy with their lives. That they are given the support that they need and the ability to see a brighter future.
- All those in the Midlands and North of England affected by torrential rain and flooding especially those who homes and businesses have been flooded
- The British children still being housed in refugee camps in Syria, that they can be brought back to their families.
- All families who have lost a relative and do not know where the body is. That they can find information about their loved one and be able to mourn them properly.
