We keep in mind...

- ◆ All the children in this country who are unhappy with their lives. That they are given the support that they need and the ability to see a brighter future.
- ◆ Doctors, nurses and staff working under extreme pressure in the NHS, that they can provide the level of care they wish to and have the resources that they need.
- ◆ All those who are homeless especially those living on the streets as the weather gets colder, that they are able to find the shelter they need. Also those working to provide shelter and help.
