We keep in mind...

- ◆ For all those who were caught up in the eruption on White Island, New Zealand, those who were killed and those who are grieving for loved ones, and those who are injured.
- ◆ The people of Sydney who are having to cope with the fires surrounding the city, those who have lost their homes, the effects of the smoke and the destruction of the farm land and wildlife.
- ◆ All those who are homeless especially those living on the streets as the weather gets colder, that they are able to find the shelter they need. For all homeless children who do not know where they will be spending Christmas. All those working to provide shelter and support.
