Warning

On 23 April, the UK government is testing an emergency alert service that will cause mobile phones to sound an alarm. Some victims of domestic abuse may have a mobile phone that is concealed from an abuser. If this phone is turned on the alarm will sound.

It may also be a distraction for drivers and for people who are neurodiverse.

There is more information, along with a demonstration of the alert here: About Emergency Alerts - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\)

If you have any events or information that you think would be of interest to your fellow congregation members send the details to the office by Thursday of each week for inclusion on the following Sunday. Please telephone 01386 446381 or email it to office@hamptonchurch.org.uk
