There is no Wednesday Holy Communion during August. Wednesday services restart on 6th September 2023.

We keep in mind...

- ◆ All the children coming to the end of the school year. For those moving to a new school, college or university and waiting for all important exam results.
- ◆ All those worried about the warming of the planet with the heatwave in Southern Europe.
- ◆ All those worried by increasing mortgage and rental rates.
- ◆ All those giving their time to helping others as volunteers either through small local charities or large organisations.
- ◆ The people of the Ukraine who have been killed, displaced or without drinking water following the breaching of the Kakhovka Dam. For the environment damage that has been caused and loss of wildlife and farmland.
