Church Electoral Rolls

Each church has a formal list of church members, the Electoral Roll, which is made up of those who worship regularly at the church. Only those on the roll can stand for election or vote at the AGM.

Every year before the AGM the roll is updated but a new roll is prepared every six years. Hampton, Sedgeberrow and Hinton on the Green are preparing new rolls this year.

Hampton: Letters are in the Church, if possible can you deliver to a neighbour. Blank forms will be available in church or from the office. All completed forms should be received by 20 April.

Hinton on the Green: Please contact the Electoral Roll Officer for a new form.
