Church Electoral Roll (Hampton)

The church electoral roll is the formal list of church members and everybody who worships regularly should have their name on it. Every six years a new roll needs to be prepared. If your name is on the present roll you should pick up letter and a partly completed application form in church. Please return the completed form to the box in church or to me directly by 17th March. If your name is not on the present roll blank forms are available in church. The new roll will be available for inspection on 24th March.
