FOR OUR PRAYERS

We keep in mind...

All the Christians who are suffering persecution because of their faith in 50 countries around the world.

The people of Eastern India who have been hit by Cyclone Fani, especially those in low lying areas and refugee camps.

Firefighters around the country who have been dealing with a record number of large wildfires this year. The wildlife who are suffering a loss of habitat as a result of these fires.

Families in our communities and town who are struggling financially and those who are trying to provide them with help and support.
