FOR OUR PRAYERS

We keep in mind...

All those seeking solutions to stop climate change and all those who are bringing the issues of the environmental crisis to the attention of the world

All children who are missing from home and their families who are searching for them. May they be reunited.

All those who will be remembering and celebrating D-Day, those who gave their lives so that the world could be free.

All teachers and children returning to school for the summer term, for all those taking exams and making choices about their future.
