FOR OUR PRAYERS

We keep in mind...

All the children, parents and teachers in the long summer break. For the children waiting for the results of examinations and the parents who may struggle financially over the holidays.

For all those infected and affected by the Ebola crisis and the medical staff caring for them. The health professionals undertaking safe burials and educating their fellow citizens.

All those working on the sea, sailors, fishermen, the coastguards, lighthouse keepers and lifeboat crew who protect them.

Prayer from the Pews....

The old and lonely who live alone
